TALBOT SWEETAPPLE

Master Architect
Partner, MacKay-Lyons Sweetapple Architects
Limited

Talbot was born in St. John's, Newfoundland. In 1989, he attended Dalhousie University in Halifax, Nova Scotia and received a Bachelor of Arts with a major in Philosophy. In 1997, he graduated with a Masters in Architecture as a Sexton Scholar in the Faculty of Architecture at the Technical University of Nova Scotia. He was also a recipient of the American Institute of Architects Medal.

During his studies, Talbot worked abroad at the office of Shin Takamatsu in Berlin, Germany, and upon graduation, he joined KPMB Architects in Toronto. In 1999, Talbot returned to Halifax to accept a position with Brian MacKay-Lyons Architecture Urban Design, and then partnered with Brian in 2005 to form MacKay-Lyons Sweetapple Architects Limited.

Talbot's work concentrates on medium to large scale commissions, most notably the Academic Resource Centre at the University of Toronto, the Canadian Chancery in Dhaka, Bangladesh, the Nova Scotia College of Art and Design's Port Campus, the School of Nursing and the School of Business at the University of Prince Edward Island, and the Beaverbrook Art Gallery in Fredericton, New Brunswick. All of these projects have won numerous awards and have appeared in many international publications.

Talbot has held several visiting Professorships at leading universities, including Sargent Visiting Professor of Architecture at Syracuse University, John Williams Professor at the University of Arkansas, Ruth and Norman Moore Visiting Professor at the University of Washington in St. Louis, and The Peter Behrens Visiting Professor at the School of Architecture in Dusseldorf. Currently, Talbot is a Professor of Practice at Dalhousie University's Faculty of Architecture and a visiting lecturer at Strathclyde University Glasgow Scotland.

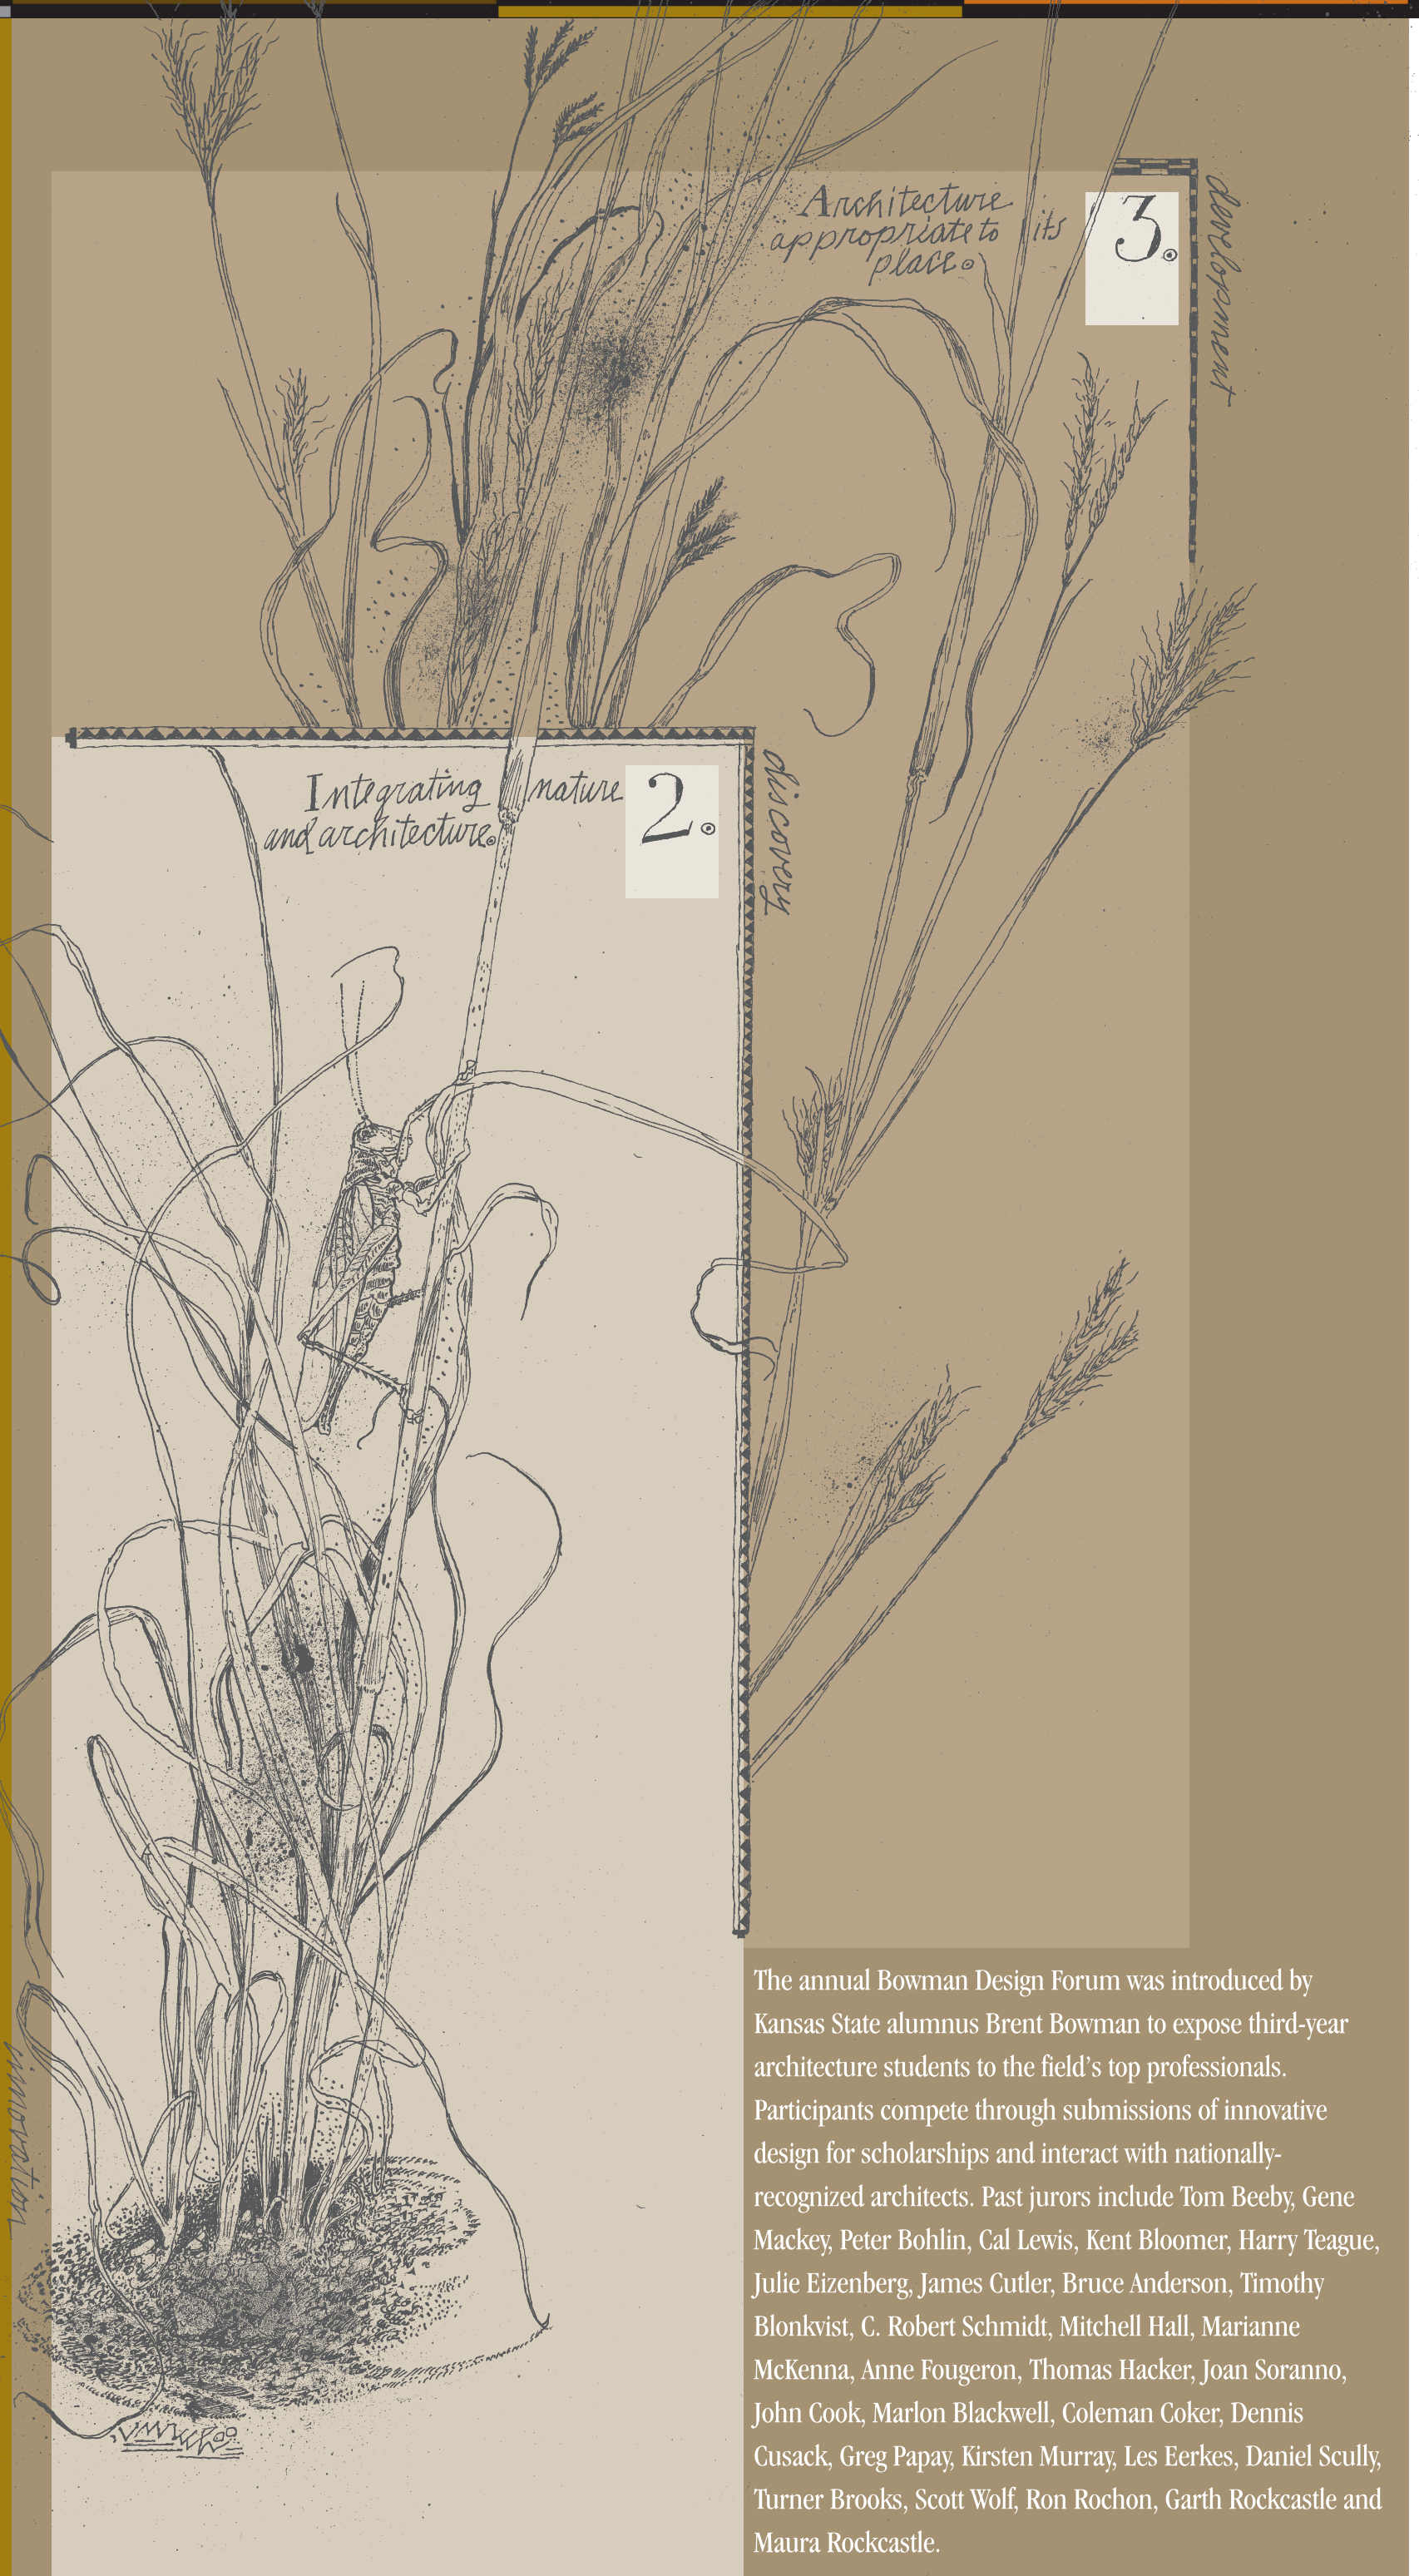

PETER BROUGHTON

Bachelor of Architecture
Associate, MacKay-Lyons Sweetapple
Architects Limited

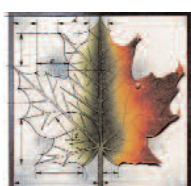

Peter received his Bachelor of Architecture degree from the College of Architecture at the University of North Carolina at Charlotte in 2002 where he graduated with honors. He received the Martin Limberg Scholarship, and was nominated for the National Collegiate Architecture Design Award. While completing his Bachelor of Arts in Architecture, Peter gained experience as a carpenter, a metal fabricator, and a furniture maker.

After completing his degree, Peter moved to New York City where he continued to gain knowledge as a cabinet/furniture maker before beginning work at Polshek Partnership Architects. At PPA he was on the project team for WGBH Headquarters in Boston. His duties ranged from meeting with the individual user groups, space planning, coordination with consultants, detailing and performing site supervision.

In 2007, Peter joined MacKay-Lyons Sweetapple Architects Limited. He is relied upon for his design and management abilities, as well as his technical expertise. Since joining the firm Peter has been named an associate and has obtained his license, helping oversee the residential work.

The annual Bowman Design Forum was introduced by Kansas State alumnus Brent Bowman to expose third-year architecture students to the field's top professionals. Participants compete through submissions of innovative design for scholarships and interact with nationally-recognized architects. Past jurors include Tom Beeby, Gene Mackey, Peter Bohlin, Cal Lewis, Kent Bloomer, Harry Teague, Julie Eizenberg, James Cutler, Bruce Anderson, Timothy Blonkvist, C. Robert Schmidt, Mitchell Hall, Marianne McKenna, Anne Fougeron, Thomas Hacker, Joan Soranno, John Cook, Marlon Blackwell, Coleman Coker, Dennis Cusack, Greg Papay, Kirsten Murray, Les Eerkes, Daniel Scully, Turner Brooks, Scott Wolf, Ron Rochon, Garth Rockcastle and Maura Rockcastle.
